SAYS SHE'S SORRY SOLDIERS SAVED HER FROM BASIN

On a white bed in Emergency Hospital today a sixteen-year-old girl is recovering from the effects of attempted suicide by drowning, with sorrow in her heart because two soldiers rescued her from death after she had leaped into Tidal Basin yesterday afternoon.

She is Miss Lauretta Boyd, pretty and blue-eyed, of 716 Ninth street northeast. Her brother, Gilbert, twenty-four years old, has been drafted and her sister is seriously ill at Georgetown University Hospital. An infant sister died a month ago.

Miss Boyd said she is sorry that Major Wallace C. Philson and Private Leo K. Bechard, of the Fifteenth United States Infantry, rescued her. The officer and soldier were riding on a motorcycle when they saw the girl leap from the wall of the basin. They jumped in the water and brought her to the bank. Artificial respiration was applied and Miss Boyd was taken to Emergency Hospital.

"I wanted to die, and I am sorry they saved me," said Miss Boyd. "There is nothing in the world for me but trouble. It makes no difference to me whether I live or not."

Miss Boyd was formerly employed by the food administration.

HEARST-PATHE SHOWS MARINES IN TRAINING

Secretary of the Navy Daniels and a delegation of Congressmen went down to Quantico, Va., recently and got a lot of first hand information about how the marines are being equipped for service "over there."

The Hearst-Pathe News Pictures being shown at leading Washington theaters for the last half of this week show Washington what the officials saw.

Congressman Kitchen, Congressman William F. Smith and Secretary Daniels are shown wearing gas masks just before they took the gas test along with a number of marines. They also inspected camouflaged field pieces in action, and made a careful study of the camp.

The Hearst-Pathe News also includes a scene taken in Paris during the recent visit of the American labor delegation. Marshal Joffre is shown conferring with the delegation.

Scenes from Camp Dix show the soldiers cultivating a 400-acre farm near the camp. They are proving they are skilled with the hoe as well as with the gun.

A scene from the western front shows the allies rushing reserves and guns forward to stop the Teuton drive. Large and powerful guns are shown moving into position preparing for action.

Another scene shows Lillian Russell and her daughter, Dorothy, speaking from the deck of the battleship Recruit in New York in the interest of navy recruiting.

WALL ST. MARKET

CLOSE STRONG AFTER SESSION OF IRREGULARITY.

Reading Attracts Most Attention at Start. Advancing or Highest Price Reached on This Movement—Interest in General Motors Becomes More Pronounced.

NEW YORK, June 26.—There was an absence of pressure in the stock market at the opening today, and in place of the offerings noted at intervals yesterday, many of those who had been sellers were urgent bidders.

Reading attracted most attention, advancing from 92 up to 93 1/2, the highest price reached so far on this movement.

Attention which has been devoted to General Motors became more pronounced because of references in the past few days to the high loaning rates, and that stock made a further advance of 2 1/2 to 15 1/2. Studebaker was another strong feature.

The market closed strong.
